Foundation welcomes Baroness Masham of Ilton as new patron

Baroness Masham of Ilton has become a patron of the Lindsay Leg Club Foundation. Baroness Masham is a crossbench member of the House of Lords and takes a particular interest in issues surrounding disability, health and penal reform.

Ellie Lindsay, Chairman of the Foundation said: "We are naturally delighted that Baroness Masham has become a patron. Her appointment will help us continue to raise awareness of the growing cost to the NHS of lower leg problems and the proven role that Lindsay leg Clubs play in helping sufferers. We very much look forward to working with her in the future."

Notes to editors:

The Lindsay Leg Club Foundation is the umbrella organisation that disseminates, promotes and represents Leg Club[®] at the national or international level. Its activities include developing educational materials, research, data collection and analysis, exhibiting and speaking at conferences as well as advising and providing authoritative support for healthcare providers.
