

UK Press Release

BSN medical acquires Sorbion to strengthen its position in Wound Care

We are pleased to share with you the attached international press release detailing the BSN medical acquisition of Sorbion. In the UK, Sorbion products are distributed by H&R Healthcare.

H&R Healthcare have been instrumental in developing this market and supporting Sorbion as pioneers of superabsorbent technology in the management of chronic wounds, and continue to be responsible for distributing products in the UK.

Should you have any queries about supply or delivery of the Sorbion range of products, please continue to liaise with the H&R Healthcare team.
