New Head of Marketing Joins Mölnlycke Health Care

Mölnlycke Health Care has appointed Mark Warren to the position of Head of Marketing and Clinical Affairs.

Mark joins Mölnlycke Health Care from CR Bard, where he was Marketing Manager. Mark has also held various sales roles in his career. In his new role Mark will be responsible for working with his team to deliver innovative marketing solutions for Mölnlycke's customers and its sales team.

Commenting on his new role, Mark says: "I am really excited about working for a market leader with such outstanding products that help both healthcare professionals and patients. Before I even joined the company it was obvious to me that Mölnlycke truly lives every day by its values – passion, learning and integrity. I'm really looking forward to learning about our therapy areas and delivering some bold marketing campaigns."

Away from work Mark likes cycling and walking in the countryside.
