WUWHS 2022 CONGRESS

About This Congress

The World Union of Wound Healing Societies is delighted to invite you to our upcoming WUWHS Congress on 1-5 March 2022! Our wish for this congress to be the first face-to-face wound care meeting in the world after the eventful COVID-19 pandemic is though still with a healthy dose of respect for what the future may bring. A hybrid format is therefore developed alongside the physical program, to accommodate all who would choose to join in that manner. It is our honor to welcome you to Abu Dhabi for a congress that we know will pleasantly surprise and delight you. Hard diligent work impacting science and lives, needs to be rewarded.

When & Where
