

STOP! WAIT! THE NHS IS IN RAPID DECLINE WITH POPULATION GROWTH, AN AGING SOCIETY WAITING TIMES AT RECORD LENGTHS! WE HAVE TO ASK THE QUESTION:

DO WE HAVE TIME TO CARE?

The 21st Annual Leg Club Conference Worcestershire County Cricket Club
Wed 25th & Thu 26th September (TBC) New Road, Worcester WR2 4QQ

WORKSHOP PROGRAMME

WEDNESDAY 25 SEPTEMBER

Does lack of time and work demands lead to poor care?

Jo Ryan & Gemell Geraghty TBC

How do we prioritise lymphoedema management for individuals in our care?

Melanie Thomas and Karen Morgan

Debate - can utilisation of appropriate skill mix within the team decrease work demands?

Rebecca Elwell

Do we address conflict and increased anxiety in the workplace?

Jacqui Fletcher

The importance of time relating to burns.

Krissie Stiles

Does physical or emotional well-being relate to stress in the workplace?

Adam Gwozdz and Anna Galazka

Coping strategies relating to time pressures

David Wales

THURSDAY 26 SEPTEMBER

Sensitivity of time: getting it right in clinical practice!

Alison Schofield, Independent Tissue Viability Nurse Specialist: Education, consultancy and clinical support services.

Strategies used to adapt to time pressure in a conflict zone

Christine Vermeulen, Col Christine FW Vermeulen, MD PhD FEBVS, Vascular Surgeon
University Clinic for Vascular Surgery, Innsbruck, Austria

Allocation of time to the right task in vascular surgery

Lukla Baisi, Consultant Vascular Surgeon, Lead for Lower Limb Revascularisation
Guy's and St Thomas' NHS Foundation Trust, King's Health Partners and Tunbridge Wells Hospital

Pressure, Insight, and stress in the Indian healthcare setting

Dan Grimmer. Continuous Improvement Specialist, Global Health Care Business Group, 3M United Kingdom PLC

A Birdseye view of global vascular clinics

Magnus Lysemose. COO at Nordic Health Group, Denmark

Does medical technology enhance person centred care?

Barbara Harpham. Chair, The Medical Technology Group

Impact of time relating to person centred care

Trudie Clark. Director of Education and Training for the Welsh Wound Innovation Centre & Tissue Viability Nurse,
Velindre NHS Trust

The words we use and the stories we tell

Gary Bain. CEO, The Wound Care Guy, New South Wales, Australia